Young Government Leaders—Baltimore Maryland

February 2012—Volume 1, Issue 1

Featured YGL

Name: Kyle Edenzon
Agency: DCMA

Why did I join YGL?

I joined YGL primarily to gain a professional and personal network of colleagues and friends as well as provide assistance to other new employees who are new to the area and do not know many people. I hope to offer my experiences to help them have a smoother transition into life as a federal employee.

What is Young Government Leaders?

YGL is a professional organization of men and women employed by or for the government who are “young” in their service and/or “fresh” in their perspective. Our mission is to educate, inspire, and transform the current and future leaders of government.

Current membership consists of over 1800 (and counting) young feds at almost 30% of the approximately 435 U.S. departments and agencies. Our organization is committed to serving as a coordinated voice for the current and future generations of young government leaders by providing a community of leadership through professional development activities, social events, seminars, fellowships, and scholarships.

What are the Benefits of Joining YGL Baltimore?

The Baltimore Chapter of Young Government Leaders is dedicated to developing, strengthening, and invigorating the Federal community in the greater Baltimore area.

We accomplish these goals by creating opportunities for networking, strategic partnerships, and training with an emphasis on personal development, local outreach, and mentorship.

Upcoming Events

Please come to an upcoming Federal Executive Board meeting for a presentation on Young Government Leaders: Baltimore Chapter
